

With nearly 12 million acres
of commercial timberland
located in East Texas,
the Texas forest sector
is a lucrative industry
for the state.

TEXAS FOREST FACTS

Individuals & Family forest owners own the largest share - 7.9 million acres, or 65 percent of timberland in East Texas.

About 80% of the timber harvested in Texas is softwood, including pine, which is turned into products such as construction lumber, structural panel products and paper products.

The Texas forest sector provides a total annual economic impact of $33 billion.

The Texas forest sector provides, directly and indirectly, 166,000 jobs for Texans.

Trees are a renewable resource.

For more information visit www.texasforestry.org